WHAT MAKES IT DIFFERENT

OSU Social Padel

"The moment most travellers remember."

Every Saturday, around 40 international players meet at our Social Padel to play friendly matches, mixed by level. Your group joins one session and plays with people who actually live in Valencia: new partners, new styles, new friends. It's often followed by drinks, and it's something no other padel destination can offer.

- Around 40 players every Saturday
- Matches mixed by level
- Rackets and balls available
- Drinks afterwards for those who want

Make more of Valencia

BIKE TOUR

Turia Gardens by bike

approx. €15–35 pp

Valencia turned its old riverbed into a green park of around 9 km that runs right through the city. By bike you ride through gardens and under historic bridges, with exits up into the old town all along the way, and arrive at the City of Arts and Sciences and the Oceanògrafic, one of the largest aquariums in Europe, both open to visit. The easiest way to see Valencia in a morning.

NATURE & FOOD

Albufera: boat ride & paella

approx. €95–110 pp

About 20 minutes from Valencia, the Albufera Natural Park is a large lagoon surrounded by ricefields. A traditional boat ride on the lake, then a paella lunch with starters and drinks in El Palmar, the village where Valencians go for the real thing. Return transfer included. Perfect for Sunday with an evening flight.
